NEWS FROM HERE AND ABOUT...

Josh Rosenblatt sent this news and great quote:

"A few days ago I made what will probably be my final trip to the old Yankee Stadium and of course, despite the crowd of 55,000, I had the good fortune to run into fellow senior staffer Theo Levene. The Yankees won so it was a great game (though many Winona devotees might argue that point), and it reminded me of a classic camp baseball game : good pitching and lots of rain.

I just wanted to write and thank everyone who made this past summer so fantastic. There's a proverb a friend of mine mentioned to me when I told him about how we battled the rains this summer; he said, 'attitude, not aptitude, decides your altitude'. I have had a great first two weeks of school back at the University of Connecticut, but I'm already looking forward to 102 with great excitement. I hope everyone has a terrific year, and for success and safety in all your endeavors."

JMG's 2008!! Gus Potter and Quin Brody in front of Uncle Clay's Totem Cabin.

Kyle Kirkpatrick brought his brother, Ryan & friends to tour Winona on another rainy day. (But we were close to our War Canoes in case Moose Pond rose higher..)

(LtoR): Kyle Kirkpatrick, Ryan Kirkpatrick, Sam McCarthy, Liam Farmer, Uncle Al

At the War Canoe Pavillion

Boy oh boy, Josh's quote (on pg. 3) sums up the positive energy that happened here on the shores. Again: "IT'S ATTITUDE, NOT APTITUDE THAT DECIDES YOUR ALTITUDE", Until next month...

Uncle Al
